

OUTDOOR ADVENTURE

Using the coast, the seashore and natural woodlands for

REAL ADVENTURE

The Outdoor Adventure Programme is designed primarily for Year 6 and aims to provide a careful balance between risk and adventure using outdoor activities in a range of natural habitats to develop self confidence and teamwork.

PROGRAMME MODULES

- Orientation to ensure the physical and emotional safety and welfare of each child and adult.
- A diversity of Adventurous Activities to develop Personal Skills and build Self Esteem.
- Water Sports (Isle of Wight) High and Low Ropes Course (Swanage).
- Climbing and Abseiling at Dancing Ledge (Swanage).
- Water Skills, Raft Building and Pioneering.
- Themed Team Building Tasks to encourage children to work together and for each other.
- Bushcraft and Survival Skills with a Night Navigation Challenge.
- An exciting Expedition for an amazing sense of Team Achievement.

What did you like?

"The calmness ! The children have been kept focussed on the activity and not whipped up into a frenzy.

"The children have had such fun and were not aware of how much they were learning until the end of the week."

"The meals have been fantastic. Not one moan from the children. The catering staff have been cheerful, friendly and helpful ."
